YESTERDAY'S PROCEEDINGS OF THE 46TH CONGRESS

Senator Ransom's Services--Passage of the Bill for the Erection of a Public Building at Asheville.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, March 30.—In the Senate on motion of Senator Ransom, the bill appropriating $75,000 for the erection of a public building at Asheville, N. C., was taken up and passed.

Senator Cockrell, from the committee on Military Affairs reported favorably on the bill authorizing the Secretary of War to settle the account for arms between the State of South Carolina and the United States. Senator Cockrell moved to take from the Commerce Committee to which it was referred to the bill introduced by him by request yesterday, for opening a direct trade bstween Stopes, of Mississipp Valley and Brazil, and establishing a mail service therewith. He wished it referred to the postoffice committee. McMillan. Hereford & Beck objected to believing the mail service merely incidental to the commercial purposes of the bill. Senator Beck said it was disguised form of the old application for a subsidy to the steamship line to Brazil. To thus give one line advantage over others was unjust. The Commerce Committee had more to do with this bill than the postoffice committee.

Senator Cockrell's motion was defeated.

The bill providing for the international exhibition in New York in 1873 was opposed by Senators Carpenter and Eaton as unconstitutional and advocated by Senators Wallace and Kernan. The morning hour expired and the bill went over.

Teaching Journalism.

Baltimore Sun.

The young men who are advocating the establishment of a "class in journalism" at Cornell University have evidently very little idea what that profession requires of those who follow it. Admitting for one moment that the richer a man's mind is and the greater variety of subjects he is acquainted with the better journalist he will make, this does not alter the fact that all other things must be equal in order to insure success. The demands of a daily newspaper are so exacting, and yet so varying that no man who has confined himself simply to certain departments of knowledge would ever be able to meet them. Picture Rev. Joseph Cook, fresh from the study of protoplasm, sitting down to wrestle with the humors of a Presidential campaign, or Prof. Huxley, deep in the mysteries of pre-adamite life, having to dash off a leader on the Monroe doctrine Even if this proposed class in journalism were to have the benefit of the experience of the oldest journalists in the country, they would find that when they got down to work that such experience might not suit their circumstances. Practical and yet educated men, who can watch and understand the signs of the time, feel the popular pulse and know thoroughly the relative value of news, are the men who are needed in journalism, and their training has been had, not through listening to fine-spun theories, but by hard and laborious work and rough contact with disappointment and obstruction.

Secrets in Stone.

New York Herald.

Our Cairo correspondent communicates by telegraph to-day a fact which will revive in a still higher degree the interest excited among students of Egyptain mysteries two or three months ago by Lieutenant Commander Gorringe's discovery of Masonic emblems underneath the pedestal of the obelisk at Alexandria destined for transportation to New York. Interesting and important as were the discoveries of Commander Gorringe and Dr Fanton, they were not exhaustive, and the practiced eye of another distinguished Masonic dignitary has just detected an additional series of emblems of a value and significance far greater and more unquestionable than those previously reported. Mr. S. A. Zola, Grand Commander and President of the Scotch Ancient and Accepted Masonic Rite for Egypt and Egyptian ex-Grand Master of Symbolic Masonry, has just examnied the foundations of the Alexandrian obelisk, and has discovered another series of stones, which not only bear all the existing Masonic emblems, but furnish the key which has hitherto been lacking to explain the entire dimensions and proportions of what proves to have been an elaborate Masonic edifice, including the obelisk itself, the pedestal, the staircase, and the hidden foundations. Mr. Zola professes to be able by this discovery to throw a vivid light upon the ancient Egyptian origin of Masonic symbolism, hitherto so energetically disputed by many savans, and it is expected that the publication of his detailed drawings which have been secured for the Herald—will finally settle more than one of the problems which lie at the very foundations not only of Masonry but of the obscure and complicated religious system of the early Egyptians.

The Town of Littleton.

Correspondence of the News.

LITTLETON, March 28th, 1880.

This place is situated on the R. & G. Railroad, 75 miles from the former and 25 from the latter. It is what you might term a growing villarge. It has increased in the last ten years from one dry goods store to twelve, besides several others with mixed stock; one drug store, two physicians; one of them, Dr. Pilott, is Secretary of the N. C. M. A; one first class hotel, good eating, good beds and attentive servants. No one should pass Littleton without giving Col. Johnston a call.

Last but not least I would name Dr. E. M. Owen, formerly of Oxford, who has opened an office at the Littleton hotel. Those feeling the importance of saving their teeth or having new ones replaced would find it to their interest to give him a call. He is well known to be an experienced and faithful operator.

You may haer from me again soon when I will finish up the history of Littleton. TAR HEEL.

HALIFAX.

WELDON, March 29.—Last Saturday night Lewis Taylor, a negro confined in Halifax jail under indictment for burning the house of Mr. W. P. Purnell, made his escape by cutting in two a large bar of iron and crawling out through a prison drain. John Merritt, awaiting trial for the murder of E. M. Hicks, was in the same cell, but would not avail himself of the chance to escape.

The Philadelphia Times thus speaks of Senator Alexander, of Mecklenburg: "Colonel S. B. Alexander, of Enderly Stud, recently sold to Colonel McCoy, of Charleston, South Carolina, two colts, one a yearling and a two-year old, sired by Abd-el-Koree, dam Lady West, by Leamington. The prices paid were not made public. The pair is said to be very handsome and promising. Colonel Alexander is producing some really fine stock, and should be warmly supported by his home people. The country around Charlotte, N. C, where his stud farm is located, has long been known as the race-horse region of America, and as good horses have been bred in that section as ever bore triumphant colors."

Tourgee's Book.

New York Tribune.

Judge Tourgee, the author—and hero—of "A Fool's Errand," is said to be having the pleasure of seeing his book selling at the rate of 10,000 copies a month. There is some talk of having it published and distributed as a Republican campaign document.

Josh Billings' Almanac says: "About this time look out for cold weather." And it should have added:—Keep Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup in readiness.

It was just after Christmas, and Kenneth's mind was full of the story of the Babe who was born to at Bethlehem. When, therefore, he was taken into his mamma's room to see his new little brother, he looked with wonder on the dainty cradle, trimmed with lace and ribbons, wherein the little baby lay, and asked, in an awed whisper, "Mamma, is that a manger?"

ANCIENT HOAX.

A GREAT SELL WHICH TIME RECALLS.

Conceived in Malice---Outgrowth of a Grudge---4,000 Letters Sent--- Excited Group—Rare Fun.

New York Tribune.

It has been suggested by the Tribune that the author of the annoyances to Dr. Dix may be actuated by a desire to perpetuate a hoax in imitation of that prince of practical jokers, Theodore Hook, who, three-quarters of a century ago, kept England laughing at his cunning and his wit. The masterpiece in this line was what is known as "The Berners street hoax," in 1809. If "Gentleman Joe" was prompted by a wish to emulate that example, he has produced a very weak imitation.

The hoax was conceived in malice, having been an outgrowth of a grudge entertained against his victim, Mrs. Tottenham, a wealthy lady living at No 54 Berners street. Hook's accomplices were a certain "Mr. H——," who had been also concerned in many of Hook's previous jokes, and a celebrated actress of the time. Together they sent out 4,000 letters to persons in every station of life, purporting to be orders, appointments, or invitations from Mrs. Tottenham. They all named the same day, and an hour was appointed for each, appropriate to his calling. Thus, at five in the morning, the streets resounded with the peculiar cries of an army of chimney-sweeps, who, with their masters, thundered upon their knocker of No. 54. Before the had gone, the ponderous coal wagons from the wharves were driven up to the house, each with a load of coal to deliver at the same house, blocking the street, and causing a great noise of wheels and clamor of blackened drivers. Later a large number of cooks appeared, every one carrying a huge wedding cake for the festivities that were never to take place. Then followed tailors with suits of clothes; upholsters with samples; undertakers with coffins ready-made; barbers with wigs to fit, milliners with arms filled with bandboxes, and dentists, nerved to draw teeth. By this time the family at No 54 were nearly beside themselves with distress at their situation and fear from the rage of the disappointed tradesmen.

But more was to come. Great furniture vans rolled up to the house with contents to fill a hundred houses; organs and pianofortes came, each with a number of men to carry them in; linen drapers brought large rolls of goods, and jewelers produced their rarest gems at the command of the wealthy and fashionable lady of Berners street. At noon forty fishmongers appeared, all bringing "cod and lobsters;" and butchers followed, every man with a leg of mutton.

At a fashionable hour, the carriages of many persons who moved in the best circles began to arrive, and while thy were still there, several "coaches and four," gayly decorated for a bridal journey, wheeled into the street. Noblemen, princes and persons in high station came to pay their respects. Lawyers, summoned to consult on important matters; clergymen, to administer to the dying; artists, eager for the patronage of the great, came in numbers together. Surgeons, too, arrived in hot haste, and, finding that their carriages could not pass for the crowd, and seeing the multitude apparently drawn by some accident in the house, they descended and forced their way on foot through the throng. And finally, when the crowd was at its greatest, fittingly to crown the joke, the Lord Mayor himself, in his robe of State and seated in his official chariot, was driven to the door.

London was excited for many days over this affair. Hook avoided trouble by leaving the country for a time. The tradesmen were eager to recover damages for their losses, and others to obtain revenge for their annoyances.

State vs. Lucy J. Norman } Surry.

Error.

Defendant was indicted under sections 15 and 16, chapter 90 and section 107 chapter 32, Battle's Revisal.

A person cannot be removed from an office by a judgment upon conviction on a bill of indictment, but only by an action in nature of a writ of quo warranto, provided by section 366, C. C. P.

Judgment reversed.

Bodie vs. Woodard } Nash.

Remanded that a proper transcript may be made and transmitted, same as Goff vs. Pope et al.

State vs. Jacob Stagle } Macon.

Affirmed.

The indictment contained four counts. The first two charged defendant, with having wilfully and feloniously administered a poisonous drug to one Eva Bryson with intent to kill and murder her. The last two charged with having unlawfully and wickedly administered a noxious portion to the said Eva, then being quick with child with intent to cause or procure the miscarriage of the said Eva, and the premature birth of the said child. The two courts differing only in the nature of the drugs employed.

The defendant demurred and assigned for cause of demurrer. 1st, That the facts set forth in the bill of indictment do not constitute an offense against the laws of North Carolina. 2nd, That there is a misjoinder of courts in said bill of indictment.

The charge in the first two courts amounted to an attempt to commit a felony, at common law, and every attempt to commit a felony or misdemeanor is itself a misdemeanor.

Where one is indicted and tried as for a felony and the facts charged in the indictment do not support the charge of felony but only a misdemeanor the court may give judgment for such misdemeanor. It is an indictable offense at common law and therefore so in this State, to administer drugs to produce abortion.

There may be a joinder of courts in the bill, where the offenses charged and the punishment are the same.

BY DILLARD, J.

J. M. Young, et al vs. Thos. T. Greenlee, et al. } McDowell.

Affirmed.

Where the legal title is acquired by purchase at a sheriff's sale and conveyed by the purchaser to the judgment debtor's wife, a purchaser at a subsequent sale under a junior judgment and execution cannot prevail in an action which bases the right of recovery on the legal tittle alone. In such case the remedy must be by an action impeaching the older title, and setting forth the special fact calling for the exertion of the equitable powers of the court to displace the older title in whole or part.

The legal title having come to feme covert, it was, by the constitution and laws, an estate vested, in point of possession and title, in the wife as her separate property, without any right whatever in the husband except the right of ingress, egress and regress to the dwelling of the wife, to live with her, and without the power in any creditor of the husband by execution to sell and have title passed to the wife's lands for the debts of said husband.

DILLARD, J.:

Love vs. Smathers } Haywood.

Affirmed.

The legal estate is not to be divested out of a trustee by a sale, if he or any other person than the cestui qui trust has an equity in the same property.

SMITH, C. J.:

State vs. Brown. } Graham.

Affirmed.

Escape. Varience.

An escape without force by one in custody upon a charge for a misdemeanor, is itself a misdemeanor, and the offense is punishable by fine or imprisonment. All persons are bound to submit themselves to the judgment of the law, and to be ready to be justified by it; those who declining to undergo a legal imprisonment when arrested on criminal process, free themselves by any artifice and elude the vigilance of their keepers before they are put in prison, are guilty of an offence in the nature of a high contempt and are punishable therefor.

Upon the trial for an affray, one may be found guilty of the assault and battery, and the other acquitted; the variance is not a fatal defect to arrest the prosecution and entitle the defendant to a new trial. State vs. Allen, 4 Hawks. 356, State vs. Wilson, Phil. 237.

D. T. Durham vs. W. & W. R. R. Co. } Pender.

Affirmed.

On the night of February 13, 1879, a mule the property of the plaintiff, was stricken and killed by one of the engines of the defendant company.

The force of the statutory presumption of negligence, applies when the facts are not known, or when from the testimony they are uncertain, the statute turns the scale and fixes the responsibility.

The law does not require that a railroad company should enclose its track with a fence, and the failure to do so is no negligence for which it is liable. Nor should the company abate the usual speed of its engines on account of the obscurity of the night, though the vigilance of its officers and agents should be quickened on such occasions.

Chester & Lenoir N.G. R.R. Co. vs. J. M. Richardson. } Lincoln.

Appeal dismissed.

No appeal lies from the refusal of a Judge to dismiss the action. The proper course is to proceed with the trial "leaving the parties to save their rights by exception," or to retain the cause until trial can be properly had. The direction that notice shall issue to supply the appellant's omission does not affect a substantial right within the meaning of C. C. P., sec. 299, so as to give a right of appeal.

B. B. Freeman, et al, vs. W. D. Sprague, et al. } Caldwell.

Affirmed.

Action to recover land, on which is a valuable hotel, with damages for the wrongful with holding.

The defendants in denying that the land in question is within the boundaries of the plaintiff's grant, propose to show that said land has been occupied and cultivated for more than thirty years, by different persons, to wit, from June, 1805, to 1854. This evidence was objected to by plaintiffs on the ground that the defense arises under the statute of limitations, and not being specially set up and relied on in the answer as required by C. C. P, section 17, was irrelevant and incompetent. The evidence was admitted.

Evidence that is introduced to show title out of the State at the date of the plaintiff's grant, and that no estate is conveyed thereby, is pertinent and proper when it is offered to show that no title vested in plaintiffs under the grant, and that they never had a cause of action against the defendants.

It was never necessary to plead the statute in order to authorize the admission of proof that title to the land claimed was out of the plaintiff and in some one else, by prior and overreaching conveyances or in consequence of long-continued adverse possession Either equally defeats the action, as the inquiry is, not whether the defendant has not, but whether the plaintiff has title to the property claimed.

If an action is governed by the limitations contained in C. C. P. there is no just ground for departing from the construction and practice under similar provisions of the previous law.

David Worth vs. Com'rs of Ashe. } Ashe.

There is no error.

Reversed.

The plaintiff holds three hundred and sixty-four shares of capital stock in the Bank of Abingdon, a foreign corporation, and insists upon their exemption from taxation for the reason that all the corporate property is outside the limits of the State, and his stock is not subject to its taxing power.

The principal involved is substantially the same as in Belo vs. Hill decided at the present term.

The act of Congress confers upon the States wherein national banks may be organized, the authority to tax the shares of non-resident as well as resident stockholders, under certain restraints and to collect the same through the same corporation. The General Assembly has included among the subjects of an ad valorem taxation, stocks held by its citizens in foreign corporations. Acts 1879, chapter 70 and 71 and further, any certificate of deposit in any bank whether in or out of the State, certificate of stock in any corporation or trust company whether in or out of the State.

There is error. Judgment must be entered here sustaining the demurrer of the defendant and dismissing the action.

The United States man of war Constellation sailed Saturday last for Ireland bearing her freight of food for the sufferers in that unhappy country. She never started upon a voyage in which so many heartfelt prayers for a speedy and safe arrival attended her.

ANOTHER CYCLONE.

IT SWEEPS THROUGH A SCOPE OF OLD VIRGINIA.

Lawrenceville Court-house Damaged --Destruction of Property Along its Line--Trees Uprooted, Etc.

NEW YORK, March 30.—A Petersburg (Va.) special says that a severe cyclone visited that portion of Brunswick county on Saturday night. It struck Lawrenceville about 11 o'clock, unroofing and seriously damaging the court-house and blowing down every building on James Buckley's place except his dwellings, which was badly injured. Two large stable buildings belonging to J. R. Thomas and D. M. Bernard were completely demolished. Other buildings were more or less damaged, and trees were uprooted, blown down, and the streets blockaded. It is feared that great damage has been done to property all along the track of the cyclone through the country.

The Florence Nightingale of the Nursery.

The following is an extract from a letter written to the German Reformed Messenger, at Chambersburg, Penn:—

A BENEFACTRESS.

Just open the door for her, and Mrs. Winslow will prove the American Nightingale of the Nursery. Of this we are so sure, that we will teach our "Susy" to say "a blessing on Mrs. Winslow" for helping her to survive and escape the griping, colicking, and teething siege. Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup relieves the child from pain, and cures dysentery and diarrhœa. It softens the gums, reduces inflammation, cures wind colic, and carries the infant safely through the teething period. It performs precisely what it professes to perform, every part of it—nothing less. We have never seen Mrs. Winslow—know her only through the preparation of her "Soothing Syrup for Children Teething." If we had the power we would make her, as she is, a physical saviour to the infant race. Sold by all druggists.

DAILY NEWS

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 31, 1880.

GEO. C JORDAN, Editor and Propr

On the 5th of next month the electors in the State of Indiana are to vote on a proposed amendment to the State constitution, placing certain restrictions upon the qualifications of voters. These provide that, before a citizen can vote, he shall have resided in the State six months, and in the township sixty days, and in the ward or precinct thirty days immediately preceeding an election, and, if an alie, he must have resided in the United States at least one year, and declared his intention of becoming a citizen. At present almost any one can vote in Indiana who happens to be there on election day, and, in consequence of the freedom, both parties have had recourse to the device of importing voters at election day These fraudulent practices have changed the results of elections in some cases, and the best men on both sides have come to the conclusion that strong measures should be taken to prevent them.

MOORE'S HISTORY OF NORTH CAROLINA.

We have just received from Messrs. Alfred Williams & Co., publishers, the first volume of this exceedingly valuable work. The book contains 520 pages, and is from the press. Messrs. Uzzle & Wiley are the printers, and we believe this book is the best specimen of printing ever done in the State.

Moore's History of North Carolina is the first and only complete history of the State ever published, and it gives us pleasure to say that the work is all that can be desired in a State history, and Major Moore deserves the hearty thanks of every North Carolinian for the excellent and complete manner in which he has done his work. The book contains a minute and unbroken story of the State's settlement, its rise, struggles and progress, and the great contest of the Revolution, especially all the events connected with our State, and the new independent government of the people, are fully and plainly writing a manner that makes up proud of the "Old North State." No public man in this State, no matter of what profession he may be, can afford to be without the valuable information which this book contains. It gives a clearer insight into and better understanding of our prominent men of every calling who have long since passed from our midst. The book contains a great number of notes and references, serving to explain and corroborate the statements in the text, which make the work still more valuable as a State authority.

This is the only complete chronological history of the State ever written, and the author has been at work upon the book for twenty-five years, and again we say that Major Moore has done his work well, and we commend the book with pride, to every North Carolinian, wherever he may be found, and to every other person who desires to learn of this State.

AN INVESTIGATION.

On yesterday, a complaint was lodged on affidavit with Coroner W. R. Richardson that a prisoner named Andrew Friel had died at the Penitentiary from punishment inflicted by the officers of the Institution at or near University Station, in Orange county. Col. Richardson at once went into a full investigation of the matter, as being due both to the authorities and himself as a public officer. We are not sufficiently acquainted with the subject matter as to form any opinion, but, in order to show that the Governor desires the strictest scrutiny in all affairs pertaining to the government of public matters, we publish the following reply to a letter received on yesterday:—

NORTH CAROLINA, EXECUTIVE DEP'T, RALEIGH, March 30th, 1880.

Capt. E R. Stamps, Chairman of Board of Directors of Penitentiary:

DEAR SIR:—Mr. W. R Richardson, Coronor of Wake county, desires to make some investigation into the manner and cause of the death of a convict who recently died in the Penitentiary

I desire that you will accompany him and see that he has the amplest opportunity afforded him to make such investigation as he desires, sanctioned by law.

I am, truly yours,
THOS. J. JARVIS.

It will be seen from the above that the Governor desires the strictest scrutiny into the official conduct of the authorities under his control, and we join with him in the hope that Coronor Richardson will probe to the fullest extent all matters pertaining to the conduct of the Institution, and we are informed that the question will be tried to-day at 12 o'clock noon at the office of Messrs. Gray & Stamps.

The Victims of the Paper Duty.

Detroit Free Press.

Two men, whose swollen bank accounts attest the iniquity of the tax which pours the money into their tills outweigh the demand of hundreds and thousands of men whose daily bread is made dearer by the outrage and farce enacted there. It is not the rich strong journals and publishers of the cities that suffer most from it. It is men struggling for a living, the poor who buy school-books, the small tradesmen who use paper in scores of ways, that are the principal victims of this outrage and this farce.

Grant the Democratic Hope.

St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

The nominee will probably be some one who can carry Ohio. The very moment Grant's nomination is declared at Chicago, Ohio becomes a doubtful State and battle-ground. If Ohio is lost to the Republicans in October, the Presidency is lost to them. But who can carry Ohio for the Democrats? We think that Thurman and Bayard would do, or Bayard and Thurman, or Seymour and Hendricks. We think that Bill Morrison is a possible dark horse who could receive a large German vote in Ohio. Democratic prospects never were better than they are to-day. Let us hope that Grant will be nominated and that the Democrats will not make another blunder like the Greeley nomination.

NEW YORK, March 24, 1880.

Editor of the Journal of Commerce:

Please explain why it is that eggs are associated with Easter. I have asked several friends, but no one seems able to give a reason. H. H. N.

Reply.—The egg is an accepted symbol of the Resurrection. It was used long before Christianity to represent both the creation and deluge, as life and order came out of chaos, and out of the ark which inclosed it as the shell does the life to be quickened within it. The transfer of the symbol to the new life that comes out of the grave is very natural. These eggs were colored red or crimson to represent the blood poured out for man's redemption, through which alone as the believers held, the new life was promised.

Fidelity to Duty.

Joe Turner's Defenders.

Booming David Davis.

Thomasville Enterprise.

The latest boom is for Senator David Davis. Well, it will take a good healthy boom to elevate him into the presidency, but we are ready to join the band and help to boom him into office if possible. We prefer him to Grant or Tilden.

Why Not?

Philadelphia Times.

The latest Presidential ticket put out by the New York Sun is Ulysses S. Grant for President and Frederick D. Grant for Vice-President. If the return of Grant to the white house means the coming crown of empire, why not indicate the heir-apparent by the election of a Vice-President.

It Will Take Forty Years.

Washington Post.

Our national debt is not really a blessing, but it is not the part of wisdom to strain too hard in our haste to pay it off. The talk about wiping out all the bonds in fifteen years is nonsense If that is done in forty years of continuous peace we shall do well.

Col. Lot W. Grimshrey writes a letter to the Raleigh News which, while ostensibly written for othrr purposes, is really to advocate the proposition of Col. Fitch in preference to that of Mr. Best The action of the Republican in relation to this Col. Fitch is rather transparent. Having been forced by public sentiment to express some sort of desire for a sale, they trot out the colonel at the very last moment, with a sort of proposition, made to look plausible by reasons of the fact that he offers cash, and ask the Legislature to reject Mr. Best's proposition and accept his. Should the Best syndicate make anything by the trade—and this is of course what they are trying to do—then, perhaps, we shall be reminded of the fact that another and a better proposition was offered. But it won't work.—Charlotte Observer.

"LET US NOT FROM HUNGER DIE."

THE CRY OF IRELAND'S FAMISHING CHILDREN.

Mr. John Keynton, composer of the song "Hush, My Darlings," has been inspired afresh by the pathetic description of Ireland's destitute school children, and has put the sentiment of the subject in the shape of a song, music for which has been composed by Mr. Charles E Pratt. The verses, which are dedicated to the school children of the United States, are as follows:

Let us not from hunger die;
Heed our feeble cries of woe;
All in vain for food we cry;
Pain and suffering we know.
To our sires in vain we plead,
They but turn aside and weep;
Oh! in pity now give heed,
Happy children o'er the deep.
Hark! the cry from Erin's land;
Willing hearts, oh! make reply;
Send them aid from Freedom's hand,
Oh! we must not let them die.

Let us not from hunger die,
Ye who, in that land so fair,
Hear no parents' mournful sigh,
Every blessing fondly share.
Think of us in rag and woe,
Kept from school thro' hunger's pain;
Oh! your little help bestow.
God will give it back again.
Hark! the cry from Erin's land,
Willing hearts, oh! make reply.
Send them aid from Freedom's band,
Oh! we must not let them die.

Let us not from hunger die;
We will bless you evermore;
Help to quell the bitter sigh;
Give from out your generous store.
Joy to brothers, sisters here,
You can give, tho' small the mite—
It will some poor darling cheer—
Some poor little heart delight.
Hark! the cry from Erin's land.
Willing hearts, oh! make reply,
Send them aid from Freedom's hand,
Oh! we must not let them die.

Cuticura

REMEDISE

Have Achieved the most noted success of any Medicines of Modern Times.

Messrs. Weeks & Potter have never doubted the specific properties of Cuticura, Cuticura Resolvent and Cuticura Soap, for the speedy, permanent, and economical cure of Humors of the Blood, Skin and Scalp. They are however, astonished at their universal success; for it was to be expected that in the hands of some they would fail solely from spasmodic or ignorant use of them.

They are enabled to say without fear of contradiction that no remedies ever achieved in the short space of one year the number of wonderful cures performed by the CUTICURA REMEDIES.

SALT RHEUM,

Covering the Body for Ten Years, Permanently Cured.

LAW OFFICE OF HAS HOUGHTON, 17 Congress Street, Boston, Feb 2d 1878.

Messrs. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen.—I feel it a duty to inform you, and through you all who are interested to know the fact, that a most desperate and obstinate case of Salt Rheum or Eczema, which has been under my personal observation from its first appearance to the present time, about ten (10) years,—covering the greater portion of the patient's body, and limbs with its peculiar irritating and itching scab, and to which all the known methods of treating such disease had been applied without benefit, has completely disappeared leaving a clean and healthy skin, under a few days of profuse application of CUTICURA.

I can and do heartily advise all similarly afflicted to try the remedy which has been so effectual in this case.

Very truly yours,
CHAS HOUGHTON.

Liver Complaint.

And Dyspepsia Treated by the Resolvent, Gains 5 1-2 pounds on one Bottle.

GENTLEMEN,—I have had Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia, with running sores on the side of my neck, for ten years. Doctors did no good. I have been speeding for eight years and I did me no good. Everything I ate distressed me. I got reduced from 190 to 132 pounds. At last I tried the RESOLVENT and it helped me right off, and on one bottle I gained five and one-half pounds. It is doing the business, and I am going for it strong.

Yours truly
JOHN H. ROY
414 Wabash Ave., Chicago, Ill., Nov. 15, 1878

NOTE.—Cuticura is admirable assisted in cases of extreme physical weakness, or where the virus of scrofula is known to lurk in the system, by the internal use of the Cuticura Resolvent, without doubt the most powerful blood purifier and liver stimulant in the world.

Cuticura Soap is an elegant toilet and medicinal assistant to Cuticura in the treatment of all external ailments. For chapped hands, rough skin and tan, sunburn, and the lesser skin troubles, it is indispensable; as a soap for the toilet, the nursery and bath it is the most elegant, refreshing, and healthful before the public.

These great remedies succeed where all others heretofore in use fail because they possess new and original properties never before successfully combined in medicine.

The Cuticura Remedies are prepared by Weeks & Potter, Chemists and Druggists, Boston, and sold by all Druggists. Price of Cuticura small boxes, 50 cents; large boxes, containing two and one-half times the quantity of small $1. Resolvent, $1 per bottle. Cuticura Soap, 25 cents per cake; by mail, 30 cents; 3 cakes, 75 cents.

For Sale.

A Rare Chance for Investment.

Wishing to give my whole attention to the lumber trade, in which I am about to engage on a larger scale than ever before, I offer for sale on terms to suit the times the following valuable property in Cary:

I.

MY PLUG TOBACCO FACTORY, in a BRICK building 50x80 feet, 3 stories high, the lower story being two large store-rooms. The Tobacco Machinery is new and has a capacity of manufacturing 1,000 lbs. per day. The factory has been worked a year, and a good beginning for a trade has been made. The building and the machinery will be sold together, or separately to suit purchasers.

II.

GRAIN MILLS,

in a 3 story brick building, 28x40 feet. Two Wheat Mills and one Corn Mill, new and complete with a capacity for grinding 100 bushels of wheat and 100 bushels of corn a day, and can compete in quality of flour with any mills in the State. The mills have had a very large local patronage during the past year. They are driven by a 60 HORSE POWER STEAM ENGINE, improved, of the make of Talbott & Sons, Richmond.

Attached to the engine is also a 60 Saw COTTON GIN and power press, at a safe distance (about 100 feet) in a different lot. The engine has a brick smoke-stack 60 feet high, making the danger from fire the least possible and the rate of insurance very low.

III.

Several well built and handsome residences, with lots and gardens of about 1 acre to each dwelling. They are wooden buildings, 2 stories high, with from 5 to 7 rooms each situated in desirable locations in the village.

Besides these, 4 one acre lots, with cottage buildings of 2 rooms.

This grand oratorio is replete with grand choruses, trios, duetts and solos, and we hope our citizens will give our friends a full audience to-night.

Orange Presbytery.

The 220th session of this venerable body has just closed at Washington, in this State, and the delegates passed through our city on yesterday on their return home. They went and returned via New Berne, from which city they were taken by special steamer. The Rev. P. H. Dalton, of High Point, was chosen Moderator. The meeting was a most harmonious one, and a large amount of business was transacted. The meeting was held in the church of Rev. Samuel M. Smith, son of Rev. Dr. I. Hy. Smith, of Greensboro, and the citizens of Washington fully sustained their character for whole-souled christian hospitality. The delegates elected to the general assembly that meets in Charleston, S. C., in May next were ministers Rev. C. H. Wiley, Winston, and Rev. T. U. Faucette, Granville, and ruling elders George Allen, of New Berne, and Wm. S. Primrose, of Raleigh.

Grateful Women

None receive so much benefit, and none are so profoundly grateful and show such an interest in recommending Hop Bitters as women. It is the only remedy peculiarly adapted to the many ills the sex is almost universally subject to. Chills and fever, indigestion or deranged liver, constant or periodical sick headaches, weakness in the back or kidneys, pain in the shoulders and different parts of the body, a feeling of lassitude and despondency, are all ready removed by these Bitters.

One Way to Economize.

Many a poor man, if required to account for the manner in which he has expended his income, would find bills of his family physician for "medical services" among the leading items. In seven cases out of ten, acute diseases are the result of some neglected chronic disease. Thus, fevers invariably result from diseased conditions of the blood and liver, and a timely use of alterative, or blood-purifying, and cathartic remedies would have averted the prostrating illness, that often leaves the system irreparably injured. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and Pleasant Purgative Pellets are the best alterative and cathartic medicines yet compounded. Full directions are given for administering them, together with an accurate description of the symptoms demanding their use. They will not cure all human ills (as some medicines are advertised to do), but they will cure the diseases for which they are compounded and recommended.

The very large sale of Eureka Sewing Silks is accounted for, from the fact that those who use them once will use no other. The Eureka is sold by W. H. & R. S. Tucker.

The News from Maine.

Hop Bitters, which are advertised in our columns, are a sure cure for ague, billiousness and kidney complaints. Those who use them they cannot be too highly recommended. Those afflicted should give them a fair trial, and will become thereby enthusiastic in the praise of their curative qualities.—Portland Ad.

A Certain and Speedy Cure.

FREMONT, N. C., Sept. 18, 1879.

MRS. JOE PERSON:

Dear Madam:—My little boy, who is now three and a half years of age, has, since last September, been suffering with scrofula, I secured the aid of one of our best physicians, who treated him about six months; the child continued to grow worse all the time. About five weeks ago I procured a bottle of your Bitters, and have been using it in connection with the powders furnished to make the wash, and I am now proud to say that after one week's use of the medicine he began to improve and has continued to do so, until he seems to be now almost entirely well. I am very grateful to you for what your remedy has done for my child, and take great pleasure in saying I am satisfied you have found a certain and speedy cure of this dreadful disease.

Please send me one bottle of your Bitters which I think will be sufficient to effect a final cure of my child.

Yours respectfully,
J. C. D. ALDRIDGE.

Seven Springs Iron and Alum Mass

This most excellent remedy is becoming more popular with our people every day. It is one of the few medicines that improves on acquaintance—the more one knows of it, the more its virtues are appreciated. Everybody who has given it a fair trial, speak well of it. Our druggists sell large quantities of it. People are not afraid to use a medicine that they know to be efficient for their ailments, and at the same time harmless in its nature. Read what is so aptly said of it, in another column of this paper. Truth is mighty and will prevail. feb27 tf

THE TWO ORPHANS.

"Were some of the clergymen who denounce the theatre to witness such a play as that of the TWO ORPHANS, they could not avoid modifying their opinions. Though French in its origin the play is so thoroughly wholesome in its tone, and preaches so powerful a sermon against wine, that its influence must be altogether good."
